

Sherman Unkefer

“He is a successful banker and has built a $150-million-dollar-a-year business in 39 months with no capital. Anyone who can do that is worth listening to...” -Bob Schmidt

Sherman logged over 320,000 miles in the air last year as he traversed the globe to present XanGo. His tenacious activity, in delivering the message, has earned him the affectionate alias of “The Shermanator”. Here he is to the right in full costume at Last Year’s Annual Convention.

Sherman’s dedication has resulted in the Pin Level of 500K Premier Select and the largest Distributor Commission Check throughout XanGo.
